

EXO.AR I: 1st Argentinian Workshop on Exoplanets
"Observations and data analysis"

October 30 – November 2, 2017, International Center for Advanced Studies (ICAS),
National University of San Martín, Buenos Aires, Argentina

SECOND CIRCULAR

The "EXO.AR I: 1st Argentinian Workshop on Exoplanets - Observations and data analysis" meeting aims at enhancing interactions between members of the local exoplanet community and international experts on planet detection and characterization, the effects of stellar activity on planetary signals, and the characterization of exoplanet host stars. The focus of the meeting will be on observations and data analysis.

Topics covered include:

- Radial velocity
- Transits
- Direct Imaging
- Effects and correction of stellar activity
- Stellar parameters and chemical composition of Exoplanet-Hosting Stars

Dates

Monday October 30 through Thursday November 2, 2017.

The meeting will start on Monday afternoon and finish on Thursday after the morning session.

Venue

The meeting will be held at the International Center for Advanced Studies (ICAS) of the National University of San Martín located in the suburbs of Buenos Aires, Argentina.

In addition to talks by invited speakers, participants will have the opportunity to present their work through oral contributions.
